Northfield's Committee Formed To Assist In Recovery Program

A committee has been named in Northfield to assist in the Recovery Program under the National Recovery Act upon request and authorization of Gen. Hugh S. Johnson, administrator of the national Recovery Act.

The function of the committee will be to direct the local campaign of education and organization in carrying out this town's part of the recovery movement. Its object will be to unite the forces of the town in the campaign to raise wages, reduce unemployment, and, by thus expanding buying power, aid in restoring prosperity.

Those who have accepted the appointment as Committee members are William F. Hoehn, President Northfield National Bank; Elliott Speer, Trustee Northfield Schools; Frank H. Montague, Chairman of Board of Selectmen; Samuel E. Walker, Manager Bookstore; Harry G. Ingalls, Northfield Pharmacy; Charles A. Parker, farmer; James W. Shea, Northfield Hotel; Postmaster, Merritt C. Skilton, East Northfield; Charles F. Slate, Northfield.

The blanket code with the agreement form issued at Washington, will be sent to all our business men through the Postoffice and the plan is part of the nation and the plan is to create wide appeal to raise wages, create employment and thus increase purchasing power, and restore business. They provide for an agreement from the employer to do his part in re-employment in his own particular plant or business.

The agreements are to be returned as soon as possible after which the signer will receive further instructions from the administration through the local postoffice.

The agreements provide in part for a minimum wage and maximum working limit for the various types of industry. In the clerical and general business agreement, 52 hours have been set as a maximum. In the industrial section 40 hours have been determined as a limit. The minimum recommended wage is $12 in small towns to $15 in the larger cities. The signers agree not to reduce the total number of employees nor to increase the price of merchandise in order to conform to the requirements.

The "blue eagle" sign will be given those who comply with the regulations and consumers should see to it that those places which display this sign be given their patronage. The local committee will act as instructed from Washington.

Gave Good Talk On Calvin Coolidge

At Hunts Tavern on last Monday evening, Mr. Ernest Charles Carpenter of New Haven, Conn., who is at present executive secretary of the Americanization Committee of New Haven and who is a guest of Rev. George A. Bronson in Northfield spoke upon invitation to a large audience of his experiences as a teacher in Vermont and of the boyhood of Calvin Coolidge. His talk was very interesting and appreciated. Although the weather was warm the audience hall in the "Ould Tavern" was cool and comfortable.

Athol's New Bank

Athol's new First National bank opened for business on Thursday, July 21st with enthusiasm.

President Carlos W. Tyler reported that the total deposits for the first day reached $700,000. The opening was hailed with considerable satisfaction by Athol people in general for the town has been without national bank facilities since March 4 when both the Millers River and Athol National banks were closed. It has naturally been difficult to raise the necessary capital for the organization of a new bank and those who have bought stock and taken an interest in the project are deserving of all kinds of credit.

The Weather

During the past week Northfield has suffered rather hot weather and it is said the thermometer had never climbed so high before. However be that as it may, the summer residents who have their homes in the woodlands and on the hillsides have enjoyed its refreshing air and happy in the thought that they have avoided the sweltering atmospheres of the cities. Our storms have been severe and the thunder and lightning have played upon our fears but the clearness and brightness of the day always brought back its fine appreciation.

The Bolton Family Holds Another Re-union

The Bolton family gathered once again in annual re-union on Sunday last at the Bolton Home in Ashburn. The usual buffet dinner, in charge of Mrs. Herbert Newell and Mrs. Fred Kendrick was served on the lawn and was followed by a short business session with Mr. Robert Bolton of Fitchburg, presiding. Officers were elected for the coming year, as follows: President, Mrs. Leon Davis; Secretary and Treasurer, Mrs. Robert Bennett; dinner committee, Mrs. Harold Davis and Mrs. Irwin Severance; entertainment committee, Dorothy and Lucille Bolton. A rising vote of thanks was extended to the committees which gave their services this year. Tennyson's "Crossing the Bar" was read by the president in memory of the members of the family who passed during the year. Albert Doolittle of Vernon Vt., Mrs. Nell Johnson of Winchester N. H. and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davis also of Winchester. Mr. James Bolton, host and eldest member of the house of Bolton, declined the honor of making a speech. He will be 89 years of age in October. Mr. Herbert Bolton, brother of the host, was unable to be present because of failing health. Mrs. John Shaw of Mt. Vernon, N. Y. sister, was also unable to be present. Letters of regret were read from others unable to be there. A letter from Dr. Harry Bolton extended an invitation to the family to hold its next re-union at his home in Montana. No action was taken, however, and it is expected that the next re-union will take place at the Homestead. Following the business meeting a delightful entertainment was presented by the young people, directed by Mrs. Hiram Bolton and Mrs. Edward Bolton. Two songs sung by Shirley Severance and Kenneth Bolton were followed by a dramatic sketch, "An Important Errand" by Miss Bertha Fuller of Taunton, Mass., a song by Eleanor Severance and a sketch, "Acrotic" by several of the little tots, then a playlet, "Vacation Time" by several children of the older group. Patricia Kendrick sang "In the Valley of the Moon." Group singing to the accompaniment of Bob Harvey's ukulele wound up the out-door program. The Harvey family are yearly guests at the Bolton gathering. Moving pictures, taken by Richard Holton of New York, of the previous re-unions, were shown in the darkened dining room of the Homestead, then the kindness of Mr. Harvey who so generously gives the use of his moving picture machine. Pictures were shown also of the lawn wedding last summer, of Miss Irene Davis and Mr. Robert Bennett of Boston. Seventy-four people were gathered to gether at this most enjoyable fete.

Good Freight Service

The new fast freight service of the Central Vermont Railway affords Northfield splendid freight delivery from the north and from the south. Overnight delivery is made from places on line in New England and Canada and second morning delivery from New York. Northfield is fortunate in being located on the Central Vermont line with its splendid freight service. Persons shipping freight should confer with Mr. Darby the local station agent.

A Three Legged Calf

At the barn of Mr. Charles Morgan at Northfield Farms recently was born a calf with only three legs. One of the forward legs shows only a stumpage but the animal, a Jersey, is as lively as ever and gets about well with only the three legs. Quite a number of people have gone to see the animal.

Ashfield Street Fair

Plans for the Ashfield street fair, under the auspices of the District Y. W. C. A. of Western Massachusetts, are well under way. The date is set for Wednesday afternoon and evening, August 9. Over fifty towns and communities in Western Massachusetts are interested and many of them will participate in various ways. The young people are rejoicing that they have been able to secure Phil O'Hara and his orchestra of six pieces from Greenfield to play from 8 to 12 for their popular dance that night. The dancing will be in the Ashfield town Hall. It is expected that many young ladies and their escorts will attend from Northfield.

Wright-White Wedding Takes Place Saturday

A wedding of much local interest will take place on Saturday afternoon on the lawn of the Wright home, if fair, or in the Chateau, should the day be stormy. When Miss Vera Isabelle Wright, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. A. H. Wright will become the bride of Lawrence R. White, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell White of Salmon, Idaho. Rev. Dr. Flint M. Bissell, pastor of the Universalist church at Dorchester, assisted by Rev. Stanley Carne, pastor of the Congregational church will officiate at the ceremony.

George A. Gibson, a member of the faculty at the New England Conservatory of Music at Boston, and Henri Piller of Boston, violinist, will play the wedding music.

Miss June Wright, sister of the bride-elect, will serve as maid of honor, and the bridesmaids will be Miss Faith Moran of Syracuse, N. Y., a cousin; Miss Barbara Adams of Wilmington, Vt., Miss Elizabeth Reed of Dalton, and Miss Polly Parker of Northfield. Lloyd Almira of Brooklyn, N. Y., will serve Mr. White as best man, and the ushers will include Edward Morgan, Alvin Porter and Seth Field of Northfield, and Roger Woodruff of Orange, N. J.

Following the ceremony a reception will be held. The couple will leave during the early evening for a motor trip to California and Idaho, where they will visit the groom's parents. Before returning they will also go to Chicago, where they will visit the Century of Progress Exposition. They will be at home after October 1 at Boston.

Miss Wright is a graduate of Northfield High School, attended Massachusetts State College two years, and graduated from the New England Conservatory of Music in June, 1933. She is president of Mu Phi Epsilon, national honorary musical society, Beta chapter, and majored in organ under Dr. Carl McKinley of Boston.

Mr. White is a graduate of Salmon (Idaho) High School, and received his bachelor of music degree from the New England Conservatory of Music. He is a member of Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia, national honorary musical fraternity; a member of the Masonic Lodge, and has been a member of the Boston Symphony Orchestra for six years. He is also a teacher of music.

The young couple will start life together with the well wishes of a host of friends.

Local Hospital Day Was Great Success

Hospital Day was a greater success than ever before. The combined food sale and musical tea held July 27 netted $153.35 in cash for the Franklin County Public Hospital. In addition, vegetables, fruit, flowers, and preserves estimated at $10.00 were sent to the hospital at the close of the sale. This places the total contribution at $163.35.

The lawn at the A. G. Moody residence presented a colorful sight. One table was loaded with all the flowers of the season. Others bore all varieties of cakes, pies, cookies, candy, preserves, vegetables, and fruit. At still another table steaming hot baked beans were ladled out.

In another part of the grounds small tables were set about under the trees. At these patrons might (nad did) partake of lemonade or root beer, with cookies and cakes. Violin and piano music, played by Mr. Harry Freeman and Mr. Leon Dunnell, rose over the hum of voices. Many of Northfield's summer residents and guests from the Religious Education Conference then in session attended the sale.

To the Northfield Hotel, Northfield Seminary, the local merchants, the Northfield Printing Company, the women of the community, and all other individuals who helped bring the day to its successful conclusion, the committee extends its thanks. Especial appreciation is due Mrs. Wolfert G. Webber, Chairman of the local board, Mrs. James F. Kendrick, who executed the plans for the event, and Mr. and Mrs. Ambert G. Moody, at whose residence the affair was held.

General Conference Now In Session

The General Conference is now in session and the program of the various meetings are being carried out according to the program announced in last week's issue of the Herald. There is a goodly attendance. The meetings are presided over by Mr. Paul D. Moody. We hope to cover in next week's issue the pertinent facts of the gathering.

The Shooting Of Mother Promptly Sent To Asylum

The tragedy of the shooting of Mrs. Mabel Grogan for nearly fifteen years her daughter Ruth, as we have briefly in last week's issue, was thrown a sorrow over the neighborhood where formerly she was held in high esteem. The daughter Ruth, was the wife of Wm. Compton, living at Watertown, and she had been in the public schools of Northfield and South Boston. She had been ill for some time and had been in the McLean Asylum at Northfield.

She was brought to her home, Pine Lane in Northfield, where she was found by the invigilator who came up each week-end. She was found in a dazed condition and she became violent and she tried to kill. She was found by the invigilator who came up each week-end. We Get Federal Funds For Relief Assistance

Northfield will receive $520.06 from the Federal Funds allotted to Franklin County for assistance in its relief work. This fund is determined on the basis of 90 percent of one third of the town's welfare expense for the first quarter of 1933.

The Tobacco Acreage

Franklin County will have 228 signers to the agreement calling for a curtailment of tobacco growing. The base acreage amounts to 1878 acres.

Under the agreements signed 34 and 3-20 acres must be destroyed, which is a surprisingly small amount, but this due to the fact that growers, anticipating conditions this year would be unfavorable, had voluntarily reduced acreage.

Contracts taken by towns are as follows: Conway, 26 contracts, representing 79 acres; Gill, four contracts covering 20 1-2 acres; Greenfield, 3, contracts covering 15 1-2 acres; Leverett, 3 contracts covering 16 acres; Montague, 19 contracts, covering 59 acres; Northfield, 22 contracts covering 109 1-2 acres; Deerfield, 70 contracts covering 444.4 acres; Whately, 42 contracts covering 203 acres; Sunderland, 26 contracts, covering 19 1-2 acres.

Holstein Meet

Holstein breeders from all over New England and eastern New York will gather at the Quoniam farm of F. U. Wells in Whately next Saturday to attend the annual field day and picnic of the New England Holstein-Friesian Association. Northfield will be well represented at this gathering. Mr. T. E. Elder of Mount Hermon is an official of the Association.

Tire Blew Out

SOUTH CHURCH

The final service of the special series was held Sunday morning, Miss Daisy Holton was at the organ. A young people's choir was present to lead the singing. Edward Morgan sang a solo, "The Lost Chord" with good true voice. It was regretted that illness prevented the coming of Archbishop Francis who was to have preached. Rev. Dr. Westwood was present and gave a helpful discourse. He spoke of disarmament and thought it folly without the disarmament of the mind. This is vital. A race war is possible, however absurd it would be, since, as Paul declared, God hath made of one blood, or life, or spirit, all the nations of the earth. There is native no superior people. Environment, training, from childhood to maturity, will make one of any race or color into the likeness of the best, if the environment and training be of the best. Ninety-nine per cent of the citizens of Northfield or of any town will make the place orderly and law-abiding, if the percentage of citizens be law-abiding. Good will and co-operation are wanted in every community and in the world to affect the peace of the community or of the world.

Winchester

Miss Margaret Brown of Winchester and John Hunt of Millers Falls were married on July 26 by Rev. G. T. Carl at the parsonage. Mr. and Mrs. Brown will reside in Greenfield.

Mrs. Helen King, district nurse, will have her vacation from Aug. 1 to 23 and her place will be taken by Miss Kinson of Keene, who will stop at the home of Mrs. Charlotte Dustin.

Miss Susan Kneen is spending several weeks with relatives in Waterbury, Conn.

Word was received by local friends of the death of Mrs. Mary Wickham at Newark, N. J. Mrs. Wickham was sister of Rev. J. Frank Thompson, former pastor of the Universalist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Winifred Jackson and family are spending two weeks in Tunbridge, Vt.

Mrs. Herman Clark is reported comfortable after a serious operation at the Brattleboro Memorial Hospital.

Baseball

Next week there will be games on Wednesday and Friday nights. Wednesday, the Green River Garage nine of Greenfield will be the attraction.

This team held the locals to a 6-6 tie last year and is composed of the following well known players: "Buck" and "Loopy" Rosee, Ripka, Mroz, Jennis, McDermott, Korchinski, Bergeron, Gexlar and others. This team held the West Roxbury Mass. team 9-1 last Saturday.

The Friday night game is still pending but a strong team is promised by the management. Watch for the posters.

Local Ball Players Guests At Movies

In recognition of the creditable season thus far completed by the Northfield A. A. baseball team, Mgr. C. H. Nilman of the Town Hall Theatre has presented passes to the local members of the team for the showing of "Elmer the Great" with Joe E. Brown next Monday evening.

"Elmer the Great" shows Joe Brown once more in the role of a rather "dumb" yet brilliant baseball player, a seemingly impossible combination.

Good Game Played

The N. A. A. ball team dropped a most interesting game to the Guilbault A. C. of Turners Falls last Friday night by the score of 7-6.

The lead was sawed back and forth throughout the entire game and it was not until the final frame when darkness made playing anything but easy, that the visitors scored the tying and winning runs on three nice bunts and a single.

Paul Urganiewicz pitched the first three innings for the local boys but was relieved in the fourth by Fran Riel who finished the game. Both men pitched very good ball.

Fred Riel of the visitors connected for a four base knock in deep right center field.

They Played Ball

The local ball team held what appeared to be the fans to be more of a track meet than a ball game last Wednesday night with the Turners Falls Highway Dept. The score for the seven innings was 21-1.

Bob Shearer who toed the slab for the local team was in exceptional good form and allowed the visitors but one hit. This was a ball that rolled off the end of Zankin's bat down the third base foul line and was fair by only a matter of inches.

The local boys were hitting the ball to all corners of the lot and although all were not credited with hits, they usually ended up with runs when one of the visitors would make a misplay.

Fred Riel poled out a beautiful four base sock that "Cooch" Care, the visitors center fielder didn't return with until after he had sat down and rested.

Commissioner Dies County Loses Official

The death of Frank Gerrett last Saturday after a period of failing health removes from active political life, one of Franklin County's Commissioners. He died at his home in Greenfield where he had resided for the past forty years.

Mr. Gerrett had an unusual record in public office, as assessor, school committee man and selectman of the town, as county commissioner, as state representative and senator, as trustee and auditor of Massachusetts State college, as trustee of the Smith Charities and as a member on many community committees.

At the time of his death he was serving his third term as county commissioner. His service as commissioner has been marked by one of the chief enterprises of the county in recent years, erection of the new courthouse.

Frank Gerrett was born in Greenfield Feb. 6, 1857, the son of Alexander and Sophronia Barnard Gerrett.

On May 8, 1892 he was married to Miss Allie M. Smith, daughter of Elijah W. Melinda Smith of Greenfield. They made their home on the picturesque Smith homestead on the Meadows road and remained there during Mr. Gerrett's entire life.

The funeral was held on Tuesday and attended by many officials of the County.

EDITORIAL

It is an ancient belief that the woman is the bargain-hunter of the family and that man must be dragged reluctantly, if at all, to where goods can be purchased cheaply.

If that is true, the man of the family must be having a good time now, for there is very little else but bargains, at prices of a few years ago.

Those prices won't be with us much longer—economic law doesn't allow "distress" sales to go on forever. Everything from shirts to cement is going to cost more very soon, as higher price and wage levels will be on us before we know it.

It's about the last chance to buy needed household articles, and make property improvements and additions, at depression costs. The chances are that you, the reader of this, have been lax about keeping up your house and grounds, in order to save. But you had better start your building and repair work now if you don't want to dig deep into your pockets in the near future.

Providing jobs and purchasing power is better and cheaper than charity.

Writing in his magazine, The New Outlook, on certain phases of the new Industrial Control Bill, Alfred E. Smith states that he has always advocated governmental supervision of business when public interest demanded it, but that he would be unfavorable to a permanent policy which would tend to make us all civil servants of government.

The Industrial Control Bill was passed as an emergency measure, and has much to recommend it. It is an aggressive attempt to give legitimate business a chance to get on its feet. But, even in a crisis, we should not forget that the principle it represents, if extended and continued after the present period of stress has passed, has dangerous possibilities to personal freedom of action. Under it, individualism can be squeezed out of business. The executive can be made simply the reflection of a Washington Bureau's voice. The field of opportunity for advancement of workers could be narrowed, and awards for initiative and enterprise greatly reduced.

If a nation comes to depend on government to direct all action, its future is in danger. The eras of progress has always been periods in which individualism and freedom of thought and action were encouraged. It is true that as civilization grows more complicated, a broader social control is necessary—but the line must be drawn between a policy which supervises business in the role of umpire, and one which makes government the main player in the game. Undoubtedly the administrators of the new bill have these pit-falls in mind.

Poet's Corner

PERSISTENCE CONQUERS ALL

Genius, that power which dazzles mortal eyes,
Is oft but persistence in disguise;
Continuous effort, of itself, implies
In spite of countless falls the power to rise.

"Twixt failure and success the point's so fine
Men sometimes know not when they touch the line.

Just when the pearl was waiting
How many a struggler has thrown up the sponge!

As the tide goes out, it comes clear in;
In business 'tis at turns the wisest win.

And oh! how true, when shades of doubt dismay,
"Tis often darkest just before the day."

A little more persistence, courage, vital
Success will dawn o'er fortune's cloudy rim.

Then take this honey from the bitterest cup:
"There is no failure save in giving up."

No real fall as long as one still tries,
For seeming setbacks make the strong man wise.

There's no defeat, in truth, save from within;
Unless you're beaten there, you're bound to win."

Henry Austin.

MOTHER'S GARDEN

(By permission of Atlantean Poetry Anthology)

I'm thinking of the flowers in Mother's garden—
The daffodils, the pinks, the lilies fair,

The roses that were blooming by the roadside,
The trees that gave us shade from noon-day glare.

I hear the babbling brook with gentle murmur,
I see the "Pictureque,"—that name still clings.

What memories are mine of early childhood!
In retrospect what joy each mem'ry brings!

To Mother from the woods we brought arbutus,
A flower that blossoms in the early May,
So beautiful and fragrant, yet so modest—
I'm thinking of that flower on Mother's Day.

I see dear Mother standing in her garden
Watching the sunset in the golden West;
A whippoorwill is singing; yet another;
The night comes on; soon all will be at rest.

The stillness of the night wraps all in slumber,
The birds are silent in the forest dell,
The flowers droop their heads, the dew is falling,
O'er all the countryside here peace doth dwell.

Yes, clearer than the day before me rises
A vision of that distant happy time;
Nor pleasures, wonder, praises nor surprises
Can steal that sweet delight that then was mine!

Old Bell Restored

The old bell in the Church of St. John, (Episcopal) at Portsmouth N. H. which was brought back by Sir William Pepperell from the Louisburg expedition, will sound again its clear notes over the air as a token of continued friendship between the United States and Canada.

The bell, originally cast in France, first hung in Queen's Chapel, and was cracked during the fire that destroyed the church in 1806. Later it was recast by Paul Revere. In 1896 it became so worn by its long service that it was once more recast by the successors of the Paul Revere Company.

The old historic church of St. John numbers among its membership at least two residents of Northfield and several persons from here have worshipped there on trips to the New Hampshire seacoast.

Mr. Percy F. Spencer of Greenfield has been selected as Treasurer of the Conway Savings Bank to succeed Mr. Arthur C. Guilford who resigned owing to ill health.

Frank E. Howe for ten and a half years serving as Postmaster at Bennington, Vermont was succeeded in office by the appointment of Ward L. Lyons, appointed acting Postmaster.

The removal of Mr. Howe is made on the ground that his ownership of the Bennington Banner, daily newspaper, proves "pernicious political activity."
